

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE IN LATER LIFE CONFERENCE 2026

SEXUAL ABUSE, SAFETY AND TECH

0.4 CEUs/4 CEHs

This free training for APS professionals, social workers, therapists and counselors is presented and made possible by the Dane County Department of Human Services in partnership with UW-Green Bay Continuing Education & Workforce Training and the Bridge to HOPE team.

This virtual training on Zoom explores domestic violence in later life with a focus on sexual abuse, sexual safety, and the role of technology in both harm and prevention. Participants will gain practical strategies and trauma-informed approaches to better support and protect older adults experiencing such abuse.

Date: November 12, 2026
