

WE ARE HIRING

Assistant or Associate Professor of Environmental Law & Policy

Job #: 528445

Work type: Teaching & Research Faculty

Senior management: Liberal Arts & Human Sciences

Hiring unit: School of Public and International Affairs

Location: Virginia Tech | Blacksburg, Virginia

Review date: March 15th, 2024

Virginia Tech's Urban Affairs and Planning Program in the School of Public and International Affairs, in the College of Liberal Arts and Human Sciences invites applicants for a 9-month research, teaching, and service tenure-track faculty position at the Assistant or Associate Professor rank in the area of environmental law and policy as part of a campus wide Invasive Species cluster hire located at the Blacksburg, VA campus.

We seek candidates whose research focuses on environmental policy or law and whose scholarship is in a domain that does or could include invasive species. The ideal candidate's work may draw on a range of disciplinary and methodological approaches. Teaching responsibilities may include undergraduate and graduate courses in environmental law; environmental policy; science-policy interactions; planning law; and invasive species law, policy, and management. The candidate is expected to contribute to Virginia Tech's +Policy Network and its Science, Technology & Engineering in Policy (STEP) program. The individual will also work closely with the Invasive Species Working Group (ISWG) at Virginia Tech.

For more information and to apply to this posting, please visit Virginia Tech's Career Page.

