

Planetary Genocide: The How, The Why?

Anonymous

“No one is more hated than he who speaks the truth.”— Plato

One will not see something if one does not believe it is even possible. If you don't believe that a scientist funded by the United States (U.S.) government could possibly create a virus on purpose to release it and then hype up a resulting infectious disease crisis all for profit with a corporate consortium then the below paragraph will mean something other than what it is saying.

“Daszak reiterated that, until an infectious disease crisis is very real, present, and at an emergency threshold, it is often largely ignored. To sustain the funding base beyond the crisis, he said, we need to increase public understanding of the need for MCMs (medical countermeasures) such as a pan-influenza or pan-coronavirus vaccine. A key driver is the media, and the economics follow the hype. We need to use that hype to our advantage to get to the real issues. Investors will respond if they see profit at the end of process, Daszak stated.”

The above paragraph is from page 73 of Rapid Medical Countermeasure Response to Infectious Diseases: Enabling Sustainable Capabilities Through Ongoing Public and Private-Sector Partnerships – published by the National Academy of Sciences (NAS) in 2016.¹

This is not a conspiracy, Daszak announced very publically the plan was to release a modified virus for the purpose of creating cash flow thru vaccines. It is that simple. Out in the open, published by the NAS, we let a psychopathic scientist tell everyone what he was going to do and we let him do it. It makes one ponder what else in our sorted history did we let happen because we either didn't believe it or were too apathetic to do anything about it.

We know so little about the true history of mankind on this planet – the great civilizations that have waxed and waned long even before recorded modern history.² Regardless of the time or place, oligarchs of the civilizations that we do know about have been obsessed with over-population going back to at least the days of Plato (Plato [De republica, V] and Aristotle [De republica, II, vi]). While, there are some areas on the planet that have too many humans in the same space or in the wrong place, over-population itself is a myth perpetuated to help the ruling class maintain control. Even though most of humanity is not aware of the full extent of what is going on today, open war has been declared by those who want to repress and command with the purpose of keeping the rest of us unconscious, keep us from being inquiring beings, keep us from knowing how strong the human spirit is or exploring what we are capable of becoming. This is the emotional grid they want to impose. They want to keep us small, controlled so they can feed off of our assets and energies. They are literally deranged fools whose minds have been warped by their greed and the covenant they have made with forces that have always lied to them and continue to lie to them. This struggle is not new and is addressed in fable and parable by many of the world's ancient texts, but this is not speculation of what has happened in the far past, this is about what is happening now and why.

It is problematic that humans think they are nothing more than evolved mammalian primates. Yes, those are the bodies we use, but for your consideration what if we are spiritual beings having a human experience, not just animals that aspire to be spiritual. There are energies and powers connected with being human – a subject of which humans are almost completely unaware; however, there are those who know about these hidden features of the human experience and want those juicy energies and powers for themselves. Without belaboring the point, tyranny can only be imposed if the population believes they are nothing more than their animal bodies limited to their five senses.

Where this Timeline starts

A hidden cartel of elite globalists has controlled the world's economy and its political agenda for hundreds of years. It is more commonly known as the New World Order (NWO); whose purpose was to create a global economic and political dictatorship be it from a war, a climate emergency or unending biological events of their creation. In the near past, they created the economic, political and social conditions that led to WWI, and anyone who didn't want to cooperate with them was removed, such as Tzar Nicolas II. They were in total economic control of post WWI Germany, financed the Nazis and ran both sides of WWII.

In a timeline that starts in 1933, a group of U.S. bankers hatched a plot to replace U.S. President Franklin Roosevelt with someone who was more in line with these entrenched institutions and the systemic ideologies that do not want democratic republics to exist. There was no coup d'état because their point man, retired Marine Corps General Smedley Butler, betrayed them. So, the NWO cabal shifted their attention again to Germany.

That same year the Public Health Service of the U.S. began its infamous Tuskegee Experiment on poor black males in Alabama. An experiment that lasted 40 years, and only ended in 1972 because of a leak to the press. Under the guise of receiving free health care, the victims were watched to see what the ravages of syphilis would do to them and their families. No Nuremberg trial held, no accountability – but if you are an American apparently, it's okay to say you were just following orders.

The lessons of the last century have not been completely understood, and now humanity is in that awkward place where there is a reckoning with these poorly understood experiences that have been swept under the rug. However, the rug is now gone and it would behoove the world to recognize some of the players in our immediate past for who they really were. For example, Adolf Hitler was probably the greatest teacher of hate the 20th century had ever seen. Intolerance was intense in the western world a century ago, and he filled the calling others had prepared for someone with this intention and influence. He had other options for his life, which he closed down early.

Hitler himself was merely a tool for the NWO's international corporations and banks that were funding him to implement a top-down feudal economy in Europe that would hopefully expand worldwide and reign for 1000 years or as long as they had the slaves to feed into the system. Yet, their tool became too unstable, too unpredictable and too uncontrollable as he tried to take over the entire planet. The globalists were still able to use him as a pretext for the NATO/EU paradigm to control Europe. With much of Hitler's financial support coming from inside the U.S., it was no surprise that Operation Paperclip brought so many Nazi scientists and technocrats to the U.S. after the kinetic war was completed. Hitler himself was a delatant compared to the Robber Barons of the NWO.

The eugenicists in America were a great influence and inspiration to the Nazi regime and in fact it was a part of the defense used in the Nuremberg trials to justify the programs they implemented. But there were other influencers as well, and they may still be present today. The upper tier of Nazidom were deeply into the dark side of occult esoterica. The swastika itself was an ancient symbol of the universe so what the Nazi's did was use that symbol rotating to the left or counter-clockwise – a symbol of a devolving universe, not an evolving universe shown when it rotates to the right.³

This symbol drew in those worldwide who knew what it meant (rotating counter clockwise), which may be why, for example, dead Tibetans were reported to have been found among the casualties in WWII... sorcerers perhaps enlisted to help with dark rituals. Rituals are really important to the puppets of darkness as it provides them with a sense of power. They are now flaunting some of their rituals in the open, to name two - the weird closing Olympic ceremony in London 2012, which heralded a plague that would put many in hospital.⁴ In late 2021, the rapper Travis Scott's Astroworld performance was not only overtly satanic but murders (human sacrifices?) took place during the performance.

It would surprise many to find out just who these puppets of darkness have been and currently are. Just research who has attended the ceremonies at Bohemian Grove where they worship the false deity Molech.⁵ Then there is the Bilderberg/Davos group and their High Priests (that is literally what they call themselves) - a smarmier group of international corporate scum and villainy you will never find – Davos is a corporate religion and so a NWO religion has been running the dystopia. These power crazed sociopaths draw into their circle those who are in synch with them (the Law of Attraction), and they may not all be human, which is almost a guarantee.

If you look at the technological innovations that the Nazis were quickly developing, one can't help but speculate these innovations had the assistance and inspiration of off-worlders if not off-dimensional sources. For example, how were Nazi scientists able to start creating anti-gravity devices a mere 40 years after the Wright brothers launched their primitive airplane in North Carolina? The point is not whether the Reich did or didn't have prototypical anti-gravity devices, the fact is Germany was at the leading edge of rocketry, chemical warfare and had generation one of all the high-tech military weapons we now use today. It would not surprise the author that these ideas were being spoon fed to them by “others.” They had the first operational ballistic missile, the first operational jet fighters, but these high-tech endeavors arrived too late in the war to assist the Reich.

⁴ <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LHHhzCkK4QY>

Consider the possibility that we are part of a universe replete with life and intelligences of all types and strips be they seen or unseen – trillions upon trillions of conscious beings to a greater or lesser degree. It is regrettable that humans are so unaware, and so misinformed about our participation in the cosmos and we are even less aware of non-humans in the affairs of our lives and our planet. Some seem to be divinely angelic; some are more like predatory parasites – the non-human equivalent of the NWO.

The U.S. has apparently gone much farther in their relationship with “others” making secret deals, bartering lives and resources for technology, hidden bases, etc. Not all the “others” are spiritually enlightened beings – technologically advanced, yes - that is obvious. Now, some are likely very enlightened, but not the ones involved dealing with secret factions of the government. Those who objected to all this were silenced, the most notable being James Forrestal, the first Secretary of Defense of the U.S. and apparently a dissenting member of the infamous Majestic (MJ) 12 group put together after the Roswell, New Mexico UFO crash in 1947. It has been reported that Forrestal was visited by MJ12 aide and future President Lyndon B. Johnson, and out Forrestal went from a 16th floor window at the Bethesda Naval Hospital in 1949. He wanted full public disclosure of the contacts that were being made. Apparently, he was out voted.

Eighty years later there is now a hidden breakaway techno-society with the ability to take ET (Extra Terrestrials) home and come back again, zero-point free energy production capabilities and more. The elite controllers don't care what happens to the rest of us who use archaic 20th century technologies... they are already in the 23rd century and have no intention of sharing what they have. Of course, they will bring it out once they have culled the human population and made the rest of us their slaves.

If this is new to some, it will sound like science-fiction balderdash – if only that were the case.

As questionable as the influence of these low vibrational “others” might be, they probably weren't responsible for the descent of certain governments into satanic, murderous, pedophile networks used to control and manipulate those that entered the halls of power. Pedophilia is the sickening glue that holds their system together. Pedophilia is not only systemic and used to control and blackmail, but it may be part of the reason the COVID event took place when it did – pedophilia was being exposed, for example, Bill Gates and his friend Jeffrey Epstein (who did not kill himself). Being compromised by pedophilic activities is just for starters, for murdering children is the next level up.

Foolish humans may have set up this deeply disturbing, perverted house-of-cards all themselves. This is beyond corruption; world governments, academia, the media have been bled out from the inside by these global predators. In fact, international banks, working with Pfizer, successfully executed a planetary coup against first world nation-states as will be explained.

One of the predators, who actually was and may still be a Nazi is global financier and convicted felon George Soros.⁶ His plan, which is shared by many in these elite circles, was to shut down every part of the economy in the first world, and de-industrialize the U.S. The collapsing borders, super-inflation, total elimination of fossil fuels (unless it comes from perhaps British Petroleum or Saudi Arabia, because they seem to be in league with the NWO), and collapse of the world food supply (mass starvation). All this so a corporate UN coordinated world government can come in and act as saviors. It is a decarbonizing agenda, an anti-terraforming religion where carbon dioxide will be removed from the atmosphere in the name of being Green. Green will be the new anti-human, anti-science religion used to isolate, control and eventually eliminate as much as 80% of the human population on the planet, for the carbon they really want to remove is us. It is a massive global death cult. They actually believe they can transcend carbon-based life and have their consciousness transferred to some silicon-based life-form. In the short term, their plan is to neutralize the U.S. with a civil war while China takes over the South China Sea including Taiwan.

Believing in malevolence, Satan⁷ and nasty inter-dimensionals, is the choice the globalists have made and most have sold their proverbial souls for something they already had and now they have created a covenant with the losing team. The weird thing is on some level they know it, but can't stop themselves so they push forward with their deranged game plans to create a transhuman world where most humans have been eliminated and they want this all to happen by 2030 according to their own published agenda.⁸

A world that will be free of poverty and hunger because we won't be in it, but those who remain will own nothing and be happy - this plan has been cooking for the last century. The globalists' desire to be top dogs on a prison planet is so intense their wish may actually be granted, but not on this Earth. That seems to be the way a benevolent universe works, you get what you want, eventually, but it may not be exactly how you planned it all out. Be that as it may, there also seems to be a lot of malevolence tolerated at certain levels and layers of our reality undoubtedly to stir the evolutionary pot for the benefit of all. Nevertheless, what goes around comes around, so if true, you don't trade your future for temporary misuse of power as seductive as it may be. It is a poor choice, but some insist on learning the hard way. Yet even in their insanity, the lessons they offer benefit the whole.

Medical Tyranny and Soft Kill weapons

Fluoride seems to have been the first foray into medical tyranny to control populations. The historical use of fluoride for behavior control probably started in the Soviet gulags in the 1930's but Nazi Germany was quick to apply same in their prison camps as the mineral makes humans apathetic and easy to dominate – stupid and docile. The propaganda campaign in the U.S. was so convincing that fluoride was essential for preventing tooth decay that anyone who questioned its use in the water supply, even though fluoride is more poisonous than lead, was considered a nut case. The book The Fluoride Deception is well researched and goes over this in detail.⁹

The practice and paradigm of fluoridating municipal drinking water demonstrated that the public would accept drinking poison if the government insisted it was a public health measure being done for the benefit of citizen's well-being – “Für Ihre Sicherheit” – it's for your safety a common Nazi reframe. This poison is still universally defended by the dentists who will willingly put the most poisonous non-radioactive element on the periodic table in your mouth, mercury amalgam fillings, and call it silver. The mercury is constantly leeching out and you breathe it in and swallow it too. They could have just called it a silver bullet to be consistent with the dental quacks.

During WWII, the biowarfare activities of the Japanese were particularly atrocious. As many as 3000 allied troops lost their lives in places such as the infamous Unit 731 testing biologics and untold number of civilians when these agents were released in Asia. The U.S. covertly granted the scientists involved immunity not unlike Operation Paper Clip.¹⁰

Blame it on the fluoridated water, but we have allowed ourselves to be experimented on far too easily and without holding anyone accountable. There is no freedom without accountability. In 1950, the U.S. Army sprayed the bacteria serratia marcescens in San Francisco from a boat(s) in the bay – Operation Sea Spray which continued till 1969.

Infantile paralysis or polio didn't exist until the heavy use of various pesticides the most notable being DDT, which is required to weaken the immune system so a previously benign stomach virus could start causing paralysis. But the U.S. government had encouraged and required the liberal use of DDT, and it was used everywhere and on almost everything (still is in certain parts of the world). Nevertheless, a virus and only a virus would be blamed for what was actually an illness caused by a pesticide or else there would be great liability to both government and industry. So fear of a virus was ginned up – sound familiar? The polio mass vaccination campaign initially gave millions a retrovirus infection, a simian virus (SV40), now known to be causally related to several types of cancer.

Don't misunderstand what is written here... an enterovirus causes the illness but it needs a toxic co-factor in most cases. If the truth of the toxic cause of polio was known, and the government held accountable for infecting millions with a cancer-causing retrovirus, we would not be where we are today. The first mass vaccination program for polio in the U.S., now called the Cutter Incident, gave 200,000 children polio. To convince the public the polio vaccine program was working, the definition of polio was changed so that one had to be paralyzed for at least 60 days to be classified as polio - most cases resolved before 60 days and of course they knew that. It made the vaccine look very effective. Today, the definition of what is a vaccine has been redefined to accommodate a hard to sell, problematic gene-transfer therapy that makes the human body create a pathogenic protein, potentially sterilize¹¹ many recipients and inflame their hearts.¹²

Oh, and the definition of “Gain-of-Function” has been changed as well, the reader can decide if that made Dr. Fauci of the National Institutes of Health look any more credible. Especially, when it was found he wanted EcoHealth Alliance to spray more virulent corona virus in Wuhan caves to infect the local population (actually made a pitch in 2018 to the Department of Defense [DARPA] but the Pentagon refused to fund the project – maybe because it was an act of war?).¹³ It would not have been an act of war, because the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) likes testing their biowarfare products but making them look like they came from natural sources. Dazek was probably just looking for more money, because for creeps like him that is what this is about.

The polio outbreak showed that you could herd the sheep (humans in this case) into a slaughter house if there was an invisible enemy and a virus is perfect for that because one can use fear to get populations to turn to their government to protect them from this invisible enemy. If you have control of the media, you can also implement a divide & conquer strategy, so if you can turn men against women, blacks against whites, heterosexuals against the LGBTQs, established populations against millions of imported immigrants – all of that causes people to turn to their governments for interventions. Do you think those funding Critical Race Theory to Drag Queen Story-Time want harmony? No, they want culture wars.

In the U.S., if one disagrees with the narrative, the corporate media will label that individual either a domestic terrorist or white supremacist/racist regardless of their skin color. If you disagree with Pfizer, their CEO wants you arrested. Those behind this tyrannical cult, the NWO globalists, are not super-intelligent, and few realize they get their power from public acquiescence whose perceptions they have to control. Yes, the cult has a lot of financial resources and many deluded minions in high places who will blindly do their bidding, but they are weak – only the weak censor. The censorship is a desperate move to control perceptions. They require perceptions to be fear based and your loyalty can only be to them.

With a virus, you can stop people from gathering, organizing and if you can digitize a population, you can control who is talking to whom and where. If you can get people to school online or do their work online, the government can listen to everything everyone is saying and writing. The excuse is that it is Fur Ihre Sicherheit to protect against the invisible enemy. It also keeps people lonely, isolated, and depressed. People will buy into solutions before they know anything about the consequences of that solution, so you can mandate lockdowns without proper science supporting same, injections that have not been adequately tested, or vaccines that are known to cause harm for the greater good of someone's bottom-line.

Now, this perspective is not a comprehensive tome of infectious disease skullduggery, but in 1955 it has been reported that the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) conducted an open-air biological warfare experiment near Tampa, Florida and environs with the Pertussis bacteria. It was alleged that the nasty endeavor tripled the whooping cough infections in Florida to over one-thousand cases and caused whooping cough deaths in the state to increase 12-fold over the previous year.¹⁴

In 1966, the U.S. Army released Bacillus globigii into the tunnels of the New York City Subway system, as part of a field experiment called A Study of the Vulnerability of Subway Passengers in New York City to Covert Attack with Biological Agents. The Chicago subway system was also subject to a similar experiment by the Army.¹⁵

Bacillus globigii was used to simulate an attack with anthrax, but as it turned out, now we know this bacteria is a human pathogen.¹⁶ The U.S. government conducted many radiation experiments on the unwary, MKULTRA¹⁷ drug experiments on the unknowing, torture experiments on the incarcerated, but again...this is not meant to be a comprehensive list.

Men in Black

The CIA had split into two factions by the time U.S. President Eisenhower left office with his infamous speech beware the "military-industrial complex" leading the U.S. into unending military conflicts (often initiated by false flag events such as the Gulf of Tonkin incident that was used to start the Vietnam war). The western faction was almost exclusively in control of anything that had to do with ETs. In the years that followed the military-industrial paradigm evolved and became inclusive of many multinational corporations, investment houses and banks, which benefited from this arrangement leading to the present where we have massive corporate interests, such as Vanguard, which span the globe and whose shareholder-ships are networked among a very small oligarch class.

While President Roosevelt avoided a coup, President John F. Kennedy (JFK) did not, and was assassinated (1963) in a coordinated plot managed by the CIA agent George H.W. Bush, who would later become president himself, and ex-CIA man E. Howard Hunt. Lyndon B. Johnson was now Vice-President and was fully aware of the planned elimination of JFK as was the infamous director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), J Edgar Hoover. Apparently, America decided to explore the dark side and so begin unending wars and skullduggery around the globe. Why was Kennedy assassinated?

Kennedy wanted the currency of the U.S. back on the gold standard, he wanted the CIA dismantled, he never wanted the U.S. to get entangled in Viet Nam, but like Forestall it was ultimately about ETs. In 1945, Kennedy accompanied Forestall on a trip to Germany as Forestall was hoping to recruit JFK as an aid. Forestall was very concerned about the secrecy surrounding ET contacts and that this secrecy would perpetuate indefinitely. He shared his concerns and knowledge with the young Congressman (JFK started serving as a congressman in 1947). Kennedy had a vision for the space program, but his vision was not shared by those using NASA¹⁸ as a front organization for their secret space program. Just days before his murder, Kennedy signed an agreement with Khrushchev to cooperate on moon exploration and signed an executive order requesting the CIA share what they knew about UFO's to make sure there were no accidents from confusing UFOs with an aggressive act by either side. The CIA had no intention of sharing anything with anyone.

Meanwhile, the secret biowarfare facility located on Plum Island, off the coast of Connecticut, was developing an enhanced version of the Borrelia bacteria (Lyme disease) under the directorship of former German SS-officer and microbiologist Eric Traub. This organism with increased virulence now infects 20% of the world's population. Be that as it may, the virulence of the organism was not robust enough to be used as an effective weapon.

The fall-guy set-up to take the blame for the JFK assassination was CIA asset Lee Harvey Oswald, who strangely enough was reported to be mixed up in a virus gain-of-function program for the purpose of developing a weapon that would kill Fidel Castro. Oswald knew too much and was expendable, so he was a convenient "patsy." Mary Sherman, the scientist running the program, was murdered. It is still speculation whether there was a link to this apparent effort to create a deadly virus and the subsequent identification and possible enhancement of the HIV virus.

Maurice Hillerman, one of the world's most prominent virologists of his time and a Vice President of Merck, was recorded saying, "So we brought African Greens in and I didn't know we were importing the AIDS virus at the time." Merck switched from Indian rhesus to green monkeys because the rhesus monkey were full of retroviruses including SV40. Was HIV just due to sloppy virology, or was HIV, once identified, manipulated and chosen as a bioweapon. A weapon that must have been a big disappointment as it took far too long to kill its victims.

¹⁸ The National Aeronautics and Space Administration

Intentional or not, in all likelihood it was introduced in the U.S. via the Hepatitis B vaccine trials that exclusively recruited gay men in New York, San Francisco and Los Angeles. The bottom-line is that vaccineologists in the 20th century were creating invasive medical interventions with no clue as to what they were doing and as a result murdered many. Or did they know what they were doing?

The situation in Africa is a little less clear, starting in 1957,¹⁹ oral polio vaccines were administered by the Wistar Institute and given to “hundreds of thousands of Africans.” As with almost all vaccines there was no follow-up. The FDA has archived vaccines from that period and if they forensically looked at them to see if HIV was present, they have not told anyone. That would eliminate the conspiracy theories, but it would also implicate the whole vaccine program as a very problematic, unethical and sloppy endeavor to say the least.

In 1973, U.S. President Nixon signed the Health Maintenance Organization Act which allowed hospitals, insurance companies, clinics and even doctors to function as for-profit entities. It completely changed the economics of medicine and over the decades disease management became the biggest driver of the U.S. economy – even more than that military-industrial complex which creates conflicts for profit. The medical-pharma complex was no different, but not by creating conflicts but by creating diseases. The sicker everyone is by bad dietary advice, life-style advice, untoward reactions to interventions... the more profit there was to make.

In the U.S., Big Pharma was able to get unconditional liability protection from lawsuits related to adverse events from their vaccines in 1986. Safety was no longer their concern as the responsibility of vaccine safety was now completely the responsibility of the U.S. Government. So, there was an explosion of vaccines required for children, and a mysterious increase in sudden infant death syndrome, chronic illness and a formerly rare neurological disorder called autism. Autism was really a post-vaccination encephalitis but the connection between vaccines and autism was deliberately covered up by agencies of the U.S. Government. Big Pharma was already well on their way to capturing regulatory agencies and politicians. No one in the upper echelons of government would dare reveal what they knew, and they never did; however, that silence empowered the eugenicists. The U.S. Government never met their obligations under the 1986 Vaccine Act and not only ignored all safety issues, but hide them. For example, the confessions of senior CDC research scientist William Thompson:

“Oh my God, I did not believe that we did what we did, but we did. It’s all there... This is the lowest point in my career, that I went along with that paper. I have great shame now when I meet families of kids with autism, because I have been part of the problem.” “We’ve missed ten years of research because the CDC is so paralyzed right now by anything related to autism. They’re not doing what they should be doing because they’re afraid to look for things that might be associated.”²⁰ Thompson is referring to CDC research that showed young black males were 340% more likely to develop autism from the MMR vaccine, but they shredded the data instead.

SARS -1, the predecessor to SARS-2 (CoV2) arrived on the scene in 2002, and in all likelihood was a test run with a replication defective corona virus, so it didn't have legs. That is the reason you don't hear about it anymore is that it had no natural host, replicated poorly and therefore not in circulation. If there is no natural host, then where did it come from? Is there a wet market inside the Wuhan virology lab?

There is strong circumstantial evidence that A/H1N1, the so-called novel Mexican Swine flu event of 2009 was neither Mexican nor novel, but a genetically engineered creation from the U.S. The virus included genetic bits of North American human, avian and swine flus and Eurasian swine flu — the virus had not been detected in any pigs except those in a single herd in Canada.²¹ A variant of A/H1N1 broke out in India in 2015, but has apparently not been a player since. No natural host?

Had there been a sincere and honest attempt to flesh out the origins of these viruses, again we would not be where we are today. While A/H1N1 was very infectious, the virus was no more problematic than the normal flu virus and apparently did not have a natural reservoir and has vanished. It may have just been a test run for a future release.

The attempt to scare the world with the Zika virus was a really big flop. They would not make that mistake again. So quick to blame a relatively benign virus for the clusters of microcephaly in Brazil. However, too many found out fairly quickly that the pocket of mothers in Brazil who gave birth to children with microcephaly were part of an aggressive campaign to vaccinate pregnant women with the DTP vaccine. These women were drinking larvicide laden tap water at the same time. So, that attempt to scare the world with Zika had to be shut down immediately because a vaccine was clearly implicated. At the same time a sentinel paper was published - a retrospective look (using age-matched controls) at 30 years of DPT use in Africa. This showed an increase in overall mortality by 10-fold, so it was very important to shut down any interest in looking at the safety and efficacy of the DPT.²²

Which brings us to CoV2, and the announcement by Dr. Fauci in 2017, that a surprise outbreak was imminent. The plot was hatched as far back as 1999, at the University of North Carolina. In the subsequent years numerous white papers, such as SPARS 2025-2028,²³ the pandemic war games, such as Event 201,²⁴ which were priming both the media and the public – not for assisting the public with health issues but how to use the crisis for control. The CIA participated – an organization whose main products are assignments, coups and false flags, not public health. Finally, they would have the event that would allow them to bring in their great reset of the world economy and cull the population at the same time. Key players in multiple governments had already been compromised, regulatory agencies had been captured, and Big Pharma along with Big Tech were in total control of conventional media outlets. By Decemeber 2019, the NIH was partnering with Moderna to create a vaccine for COIVD-19 even though there was no outbreak in the U.S. (yet).

Essentially, economic interests – the World Bank, the International Monetary Fund, and the World Economic Forum were able to get almost 200 countries to shut down their economies over a virus with the purpose of privitaizing nation-states all based on a lie. Never have we quarantined healthy people because that is not quarantine, that is medical Martial Law.

The CoV2 virus was not an infectious disease hellion. It took out the old and the infirm just like influenza does every year, so the hype had to go into overdrive, which the PCR tests accomplished by cycling so high clean swabs would test positive. It was critical the number of deaths for CoV2 to be very high in order to generate the fear to justify what would come next – the bioweapon. So, despite long standing rules for data collection and reporting, successfully used for years by all hospitals, medical examiners, coroners, and physicians, suddenly the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) changed the way they wanted deaths reported. Had they used the normal criteria the mortality figures would have had to be revised down 90%. The very people within government who might have sounded the alarm that we were being manipulated into a bio-security state based on false information were compromised as they individually would be able to earn millions of dollars from the licensing of the mRNA technology.

What happened next was 50 countries panicked and were cajoled into signing secret agreements with Pfizer essentially putting them into receivership in exchange for the injections and monetary assistance from the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund.²⁵ An agreement to remain secret for 50 years. Any criticism of the injections or of Pfizer would be forbidden, Pfizer would not only direct the global response but also the response individual countries would have so a worldwide extermination system could be initiated. The Federal Drug Administration (FDA) even asked a federal court to allow them 55 years to hold onto the data they relied on to give Emergency Use Authorization (EUA) for the Pfizer injection. Data that showed 22,000 needed to be vaccinated to prevent one case of the Wuhan A strain and cause four deaths from cardiac inflammation.

There can only be one reason to request the totality of the Pfizer data not be revealed for the next three generations and that is the FDA didn't want anyone to see the high levels of morbidity and mortality that the Pfizer injection was causing.²⁶ Pfizer claims 95% efficacy against the WuhanA strain – a virus that is no longer in circulation, but that is relative risk reduction. Absolute risk reduction is only 0.8%. That means you have to vaccinate 117 people to prevent one case (not one death). Based on the COIVD survival rate one would have to vaccinate almost 120,000 people to prevent one death from a virus no longer in circulation. By best estimates, there is a 4520% greater chance of dying from the injection than from COVID. Yet, with each revelation that the injection doesn't perform, countries doubled down to force and mandate the injection - never mind the injection does nothing to stop infection or transmission of Wuhan A or any one of the subsequent variants of which there are thousands.

The lack of early prevention and treatment protocols, and the persecution of anyone trying to treat COVID patients prior to hospitalization was not a form of treatment nihilism, it was a well-organized, well-funded conspiracy to make sure nothing would interfere with an injection rollout. All the big players were deeply, corruptly and maliciously in bed with Pharma, and would lose billions if it were found off-patent drugs could treat COVID. The FDA, captured by Big Pharma long ago, illegally exercised emergency use powers, and was a willing ally in the suppression of treatments known to be effective against the virus, such as something as benign as vitamin D. In some countries physicians were arrested for prescribing Ivermectin. The injections are now illegally marketed to children as well. The FDA advisory panelist, Eric Rubin, said, "We're never gonna learn about how safe the vaccine is (to children) until we start giving it." "That's just the way it goes." No Dr. Rubin... that is not the way it goes.²⁷ You don't administer the injections until you know they are safe.

When you ignore safety, you tend to ignore whether the injection even works, and ignore the real science on the injection as has been done by so many deluded technocrats.²⁸ Lest we forget, children almost never get COIVD for multiple reasons, not the least of which is the ACE2 receptors in their nasal and respiratory airways are greatly reduced. The argument is inject the children to protect adults, but that is backwards – you don't ethically subject children to risk to protect adults. Bioethics no longer exists? If it is so safe for children remove the liability protection.

Other countries, such as China had very well thought out treatment protocols – it included the drug chloroquine as well as Traditional Chinese Medicine suggestions.²⁹ But in the West, there was nothing – not even the suggestion to take extra vitamin D. China had claimed victory over COVID before the first COVID injection had been administered in the U.S. How could this be? Well, China is an ally of the globalists and Pfizer, but is not under their control. They were locked down for 3 months... compare that with the West. But lockdowns were for population control not infection control, unless you believe, as the globalists believe that humans are the infection.

Pfizer now had the power to silence most governments, maximize profits and power. Military bases, National Parks – just a few of the items signed over.³⁰ Big Tech and Pharma had bled out multiple governments to create this giant one world government monster with Pfizer calling the shots - literally. The human infestation would be eliminated with the silent, obedient consent of governments around the world.

Original Antigenic Sin

But there were problems. The injection was killing too many too fast and as the body count increased many started to question. As well hidden as those bodies may have been and as hard as Big Pharma/Big Tech tried to keep the morbidity and mortality a secret, questions continually arose not the least of which was why give a non-sterilizing vaccine to everyone possible in the middle of a pandemic...all that would do is prolong the length of illness by pumping out a multitude of variants, which is exactly what took place. They were called variants because they had a different spike protein than the one the injection was having the human body manufacture, and so the efficacy of the injections started falling into the single digits.³¹ This was all predicted well in advance, but the injections were rushed for socio-political and economic reasons not medical/scientific reasons. This was done by design so there could be an unending parade of boosters and new and improved vaccines as one variant became another and then another. For your consideration, compare and contrast what took place in Gibraltar vs Africa.

Africa is a heavy user of hydroxychloroquine (HCQ) – taken by millions. As of mid-November 2021, the vaccination rates in 20 African countries wasn't even close to coming out of the single digits. Overall the African vaccination rate is around 6%, but for some reason the bought “experts” are mystified as to why there is so little COVID in Africa.³² On the other hand, perhaps the most vaccinated country on the planet is Gibraltar, where there is a 100%+ vaccination rate, yet cases of COVID were so high Christmas 2021, was canceled. Unintentionally, they proved boosters don't work. In Singapore, with at 94% vaccination rate, cases and mortality spiked to record levels, and in Ireland, where 92% of the adult population is vaccinated, cases and mortality doubled.³³ England is the only country, worldwide, that seems to keep accurate records of its deaths by vaccination status. The COVID vaccines used in England (mRNA & DNA vector vaccines Pfizer, Moderna, and AstraZeneca) do not significantly reduce COVID mortality, but are resulting in greatly increased all-cause mortality.³⁴ Specifically in England, the under 60 injected group are twice as likely to die. As the months go by the mortality of the injected will only increase. Don't just accept what you just read as the truth - examine for yourself the official data published by the Office of National Statistics (UK Government) shows mortality among children became 44% higher than the 5-year-average since they were offered the Pfizer COVID injection.³⁵

At the highest levels of science the truth is breaking out and the failure of the COVID injections is no longer a secret,³⁶ but don't expect mia culpas from the COVID cult – they want genocide so it will be more worthless boosters and new and improved injections, which in turn will require boosters, until they are shown to be totally worthless – repeat & rinse – until humanity is too sick and dying to do anything about it except blame the unvaccinated who will be rounded up into camps – that is the plan should the world allow them to carry it out.

The mortality from COVID in an African country, such as Zaire is 0.6 per 100,000. Almost no one has received the injection. In the U.S. the mortality is 1000 per 100,000. There should be no need to read one more word if you understand the obvious implications of that last sentence.

Even before President Trump announced he had taken HCQ, the drug was disappearing and countries were removing it from its normal over-the-counter status and requiring prescriptions. The second largest pharmaceutical factory that produces precursors for HCQ was mysteriously destroyed by fire. Someone clearly didn't want HCQ to be around, and ginned up studies were being conducted with near lethal doses of HCQ in late-stage patients (no zinc, no azithromycin) – it was as if someone deliberately wanted to destroy any chance HCQ might have to help treat COVID patients. Then perhaps one of the most momentous medical journal frauds in history took place – both the New England Journal of Medicine and the Lancet simultaneously published completely fabricated, fictional articles that concluded HCQ was not efficacious. What someone(s) had the power to fund fraudulent studies, compromise the world's top medical journals, and then get the FDA to pull the EUA for HCQ? Even after the papers were retracted the FDA did not reinstate the EUA.

However, those who successfully destroyed the possibility of using HCQ for COVID weren't done - they went after Ivermectin next, but not with the same success. First and foremost, data from 19 countries that participated in the World Health Organization (WHO) sponsored African Programme for Onchocerciasis Control (APOC), from 1995 until 2015, were compared with thirty-five (Non-APOC) – in other words, APOC countries are on Ivermectin. That may be why they had almost a 30% lower mortality from COVID than non-APOC countries.³⁷ But what took place in India was even better. Two provinces took opposite stands. Tamal Nadu followed Fauci/WHO recommendations and had the same dismal stats that the U.S. had, but Uttar Pradesh supplied Ivermectin to its population and 97% of the cases were eliminated. Uttar Pradesh has 2/3rds the population of the U.S.

Despite the data on Ivermectin, what have leaders from Australia to Austria been promised or threatened with to insist the COVID injections work and repeat over and over that the unvaccinated are spreading CoV2? Can someone tell them there are no unvaccinated in Gibraltar? Are these leaders in some kind of mass psychosis, or following orders from the Fauci/Gates/Pharma complex? That might be called Pfizerchosis, or Faucirrhea. The plan is to ramp up fear panic with each new variant, blame the variant for the morbidity and mortality caused by the injection, then blame the unvaccinated for the variants, institute more lock-downs, take people to camps, and have the ability to inject humanity multiple times a year forever³⁸ or at least until they release a really nasty bioweapon to finish the job...that was always the plan. A plan that will fail.

Now, it doesn't take a degree in immunology to understand that if you occupy the body's immune system making a spike protein that is no longer connected to the circulating variant, not only is the vaccine worthless, it perniciously lowers one's ability to deal with the actual viral infection one may get in the real world (the Wuhan A strain is history), because one's immune system is busy making antibodies to something that is not present and may be oblivious to an actual virus invading the body. This is called Original Antigenic Sin to which there is only one solution...immediately end the worldwide vaccination program and try to help people repair their immune systems. But compromised, well-paid "experts" will never acknowledge this solution. There is just too much money to be made giving everyone more vaccines.

Acknowledging that the injections don't work interferes with marketing and the unspoken desire to kill off most of the 1st world. In fact, not only doesn't the injection work across-the-board, but those so vaccinated are at increased risk of getting any number of the other variants.³⁹ At the risk of being redundant...not to worry, Big Pharma is burning the midnight oil to get a new vaccine on the market that will address the latest variant, because only an injection made by Big Pharma will solve the problem they created. Driven by greed and power doing the same thing again, and again, and again is good for their bottom-line.

What now?

The response of these greedy, murderous psychopaths is formulaic – force people to get harmful, worthless injections over and over, hype new variants (there will be an endless parade of those), blame the variants for the death caused by the injections, blame the variants on the unvaccinated, force people to get the new injections, release new bioweapons and around and around this will go until we stop this. But it needs to be stopped soon, because billions will be sick and dying just from what has already been done.

It was a great business model and created hundreds of new billionaires and thousands of new millionaires. Yet the presence of so many un-injected showed how robust natural immunity is, so natural immunity had to be ignored as much as Ivermectin and as many as possible had to be injected as often as possible before the public became aware of the hidden sequelae of the injections, and that the whole thing was being used as a totalitarian take-over of the world. So, elimination of control groups wherever they could be found needed to take place, starting with the test study control group. For everyone else camps for the uninjected were being built (ignore Sweden, Zaire, etc. the ultimate control groups). Never before in modern history have the global trashing of bioethics, the scientific method, and the truth taken place at this scale and all done to kill off 80% of the population.

Obviously, this story is not over. On their way out the Globalists will do whatever they think they can get away with to undermine and collapse civilization, including more bioweapons. They know their future is bleak and would sooner take as many of us with them as possible. But all stories end sooner or later, and when the story of the New World Order ends, it will look nothing like what its proponent's had in mind. So, stand for freedom and knowledge, and in place of deceit, intolerance and prejudice - envision the possibilities of understanding, truth and acceptance. For that is the reality humanity is moving towards no matter how hard those who dish out their cruelties try and stop this change. Change is inevitable.
